On View: 25th November- 31st December, 2020

From November 25 through December 31 2020 Gazelli Art House Baku will present a charity sale-exhibition to support the families of soldiers fallen during the liberation of the occupied land of Karabakh, Azerbaijan.

The gallery's call to join the action was unanimously responded by contemporary artists of Azerbaijan including Huseyn Hakhverdiyev, Yelena Hakhverdiyeva, Butunay Hakhverdiyev, Irina Eldarova, Farhad Farzaliyev, Anar Huseynzada, Vusala Agaraziyeva, Ramina Saadatkhan and Javid Mammadov by donating their works for all proceeds to be donated to the fond of the affected families.

A series of Italian photographer Giordano Sotiriou's photographs taken in Ganja after the bombing will be displayed within the exhibition too.

The visitors will learn about lifestyle and family traditions of the residents of Karabakh in the early 1990s from the stories and family archive photos collected by Narmina Hasanli, founder and administrator of "Books and Beyond Baku".

GAZELLI ART HOUSE

About the Gallery

Gazelli Art House is a commercial gallery with a wide range of international artists, presenting a broad and dynamic programme to a diverse audience through global public projects and exhibition spaces in London and Baku. Gazelli Art House was founded in 2003 in Baku, Azerbaijan where it held exhibitions with Azeri artists. Having hosted conceptually interlinked off-site exhibitions across London, founder and director of Gazelli Art House, Mila Askarova, opened a permanent space on Dover Street, London in March 2012. In 2017, the redesigned gallery space reopened in Baku, with an ambitious annual program showcasing both local and international artists. Representing artists Aziz+Cucher, Derek Boshier, Stanley Casselman, Francesco Jodice, Recycle Group, Kalliopi Lemos, Niyaz Najafov and Giovanni Ozzola amongst others, the gallery has built a consistent and diverse program with artists working in sculpture, photography, painting, video, performance and virtual reality.
